

Dayville Fire District

Code of Ethics

To strive to recognize the importance and honor of my profession.

To conduct personal and official life so as to inspire public confidence.

To prevent personal gain or profit from being the object of my endeavors in whatever position I will hold.

To judge fellow fire fighters by standards I myself hold, and never jeopardize the safety of any fellow fire fighters.

To regard it as my duty to possess updated knowledge to perform my job to its highest level and avail myself of opportunities to learn more about my profession.

To avoid alliances with persons or businesses whose goal are inconsistent with their performance of a fire fighter positions.

To never claim unjustly qualifications I do not possess.

To share publicity equally with fellow fire fighters whether favorable or unfavorable.

To pledge loyalty to the Dayville Fire District, the State, and the Nation I represent.

To bear constantly in mind that the truth is to be sought before the case is made, so that the stature of the Dayville Fire District, Company, Department, and Organization be enhanced rather than tarnished.

Not to deny the needed training or knowledge of fellow firefighters.

To recognize the qualifications of fellow firefighters.

Obey all rules, regulation, and laws of the Dayville Fire District, the State of Connecticut, and the United States of America.

Do not participate in any improper activity that is likely to bring discredit to the reputation of the Dayville Fire district, Chief Fire Officer, any member or to oneself.